ACADEMIC LEADERSHIP RETREAT

AUGUST 2018
THE FOUR PILLARS OF TENNESSEE ATHLETICS

COMMUNICATION
Open and honest communication—no surprises—as we pursue our goals.

TRUST
Trust is earned, not given. Every day... be trustworthy.

WARMTH
You know that I care about you, and I know you care about me. Together, we care about our student-athletes, our university, our state, our fans and our community.

INTENSITY
We attack each day with great intensity to achieve our goals and be the very best at our chosen calling.

Examples of Student-Athlete Title IX Education

• Each team has a minimum of 2 educational sessions per semester
  • Football and Men’s Basketball participate in additional summer sessions

• Beginning of the semester presentation from Title IX officials

• Nationally recognized speakers twice a year

• Red Zone Awareness event hosted in Neyland-Thompson Sports Center

• Annual Hike the Hill in Heels collaboration with campus
Administrative Efforts

• Partnership with the Helen Ross McNabb Center to conduct wellness education

• Monthly meetings of an athletics specific prevention team consisting of representatives from campus, athletics, and Helen Ross McNabb

• Posters, flyers, table-top information cards located throughout our facilities

• Contact cards with a definition of consent on the flip side

• At the first home football game this year, we will work with the campus Center for Health, Education and Wellness to place 12,000 fans, with a prevention message, in the student section of Neyland Stadium
