

THE UNIVERSITY OF TENNESSEE
KNOXVILLE

GREETINGS FROM BIG ORANGE COUNTRY!

Ranked among the nation's top public universities, the University of Tennessee, Knoxville, is the flagship campus of Tennessee's premier land-grant institution.

We are a campus that thrives on excellence, innovation, and tradition, including our rich tradition of leadership and service. After all, we are Volunteers. Locally, nationally, and globally, Volunteers serve and shape communities by giving back and leading the way. utk.edu

WHY KNOXVILLE?

Knoxville (pop. 180,000+) has the charm of a small town alongside the opportunities of a big city. Major research institutions and corporations call Knoxville home, giving our students access to world-class internship and career opportunities.

With music venues, museums and galleries, local sports teams, delicious restaurants, and eclectic shops, the city offers something for everyone.

The perfect backdrop for outdoor adventure, campus is situated on the banks of the Tennessee River and a short drive from the Great Smoky Mountains. Knoxville is also home to an expansive Urban Wilderness and 113 miles of greenways and natural trails.
