PPPR Faculty Reviewee Information Session
PPPR

• Periodic Post-Tenure Performance Review (PPPR) is part of BT0006 Policies Governing Academic Freedom Responsibility and Tenure.

• UTK is required to conduct these reviews to comply with Board of Trustees (BT) policy.
“The Board of Trustees recognizes and affirms the importance of tenure in protecting academic freedom and thus promoting the University’s principal mission of discovery and dissemination of truth through teaching, research, and service.”

“The Board also recognizes its fiduciary responsibility to students, parents, and all citizens of Tennessee to ensure that faculty members effectively serve the needs of students and the University throughout their careers.”
Some Statistics from 2020

UTK Faculty Handbook

• PPPR not PTR

• “Except as otherwise provided in these procedures, each tenured faculty member must undergo some form of comprehensive review no less often than every six years.”

• “The post-tenure review period begins at the granting of tenure.” (i.e., the six-year clock starts ticking once tenure is granted)
• PPPR clock adjustments:
  • PPPR clock suspended during any year in which the faculty member is granted a leave of absence or a modified duties assignment under UTK’s Faculty Care Policy.
  • PPPR clock is restarted due to an alternative comprehensive review
    • Promotion to full professor
    • EPPR
UTK Faculty Handbook

• PPPR clock adjustments (continued):
  • Start of PPPR clock upon conclusion of an administrative appointment.
    • When a full-time or majority-time administrator leaves his or her administrative position to assume a tenured faculty position, the faculty member’s initial PPPR shall occur within six years after leaving the administrative position.
  • A scheduled PPPR may be waived if the faculty member submits a written and binding commitment to retire no later than on year after the year in which the PPPR was scheduled.
PPPR Committee

• Each PPPR committee includes three members:
  • Department colleague
  • Committee chair
  • Third member

• All members must be tenured full-time faculty members who are at the same or higher rank as the faculty member being reviewed.
Charge to Committee

• Review committee must decide whether the colleague being reviewed
  • Satisfies expectations for rank
    OR
  • Does not satisfy expectations for rank
• Find evidence of “continuing professional growth”
Charge to Committee

• Committee must be fair and objective
• Review is to be based on documents provided
• All information derived from documents and all discussion is to be held in strictest confidence
Review Period

• Period under review is the last six years:
  • 2015-2016 through 2020-2021
  • Fall 2021 APPR will be included
Review Documents

• You will provide a CV and 2-page narrative that reviews your accomplishments during the period and indicates future direction.

• Your department head will provide:
  • TN Voice results (Spring 2020 only if used in Fall 2020 APPR)
  • Performance criteria from bylaws
  • Peer teaching observation (if one has been done)

• Provost’s Office provides information from last six APPRs.
Review Process

• Committee reviews materials, meets, and holds an anonymous vote
• No abstentions or recusals permitted
• Committee chair then
  • Records vote
  • Provides brief supporting reasons for the vote
  • Records time spent by committee
• If the vote is not unanimous, the chair must provide grounds for the outlying vote
Review Process

• Process allows the review committee to make additional observations:
  • Issues with the annual evaluations (e.g., incongruency between performance and ratings).
  • Identification of extraordinary contribution or performance.
  • Other issues

Periodic Post Tenure Process Review

Committee Chair: [Redacted]
Review Start Date: 11/29/2021 12:00:00 AM

Year of review: 2021
College name: Arts & Sciences

Assigned Committee: [Redacted]
Periodic Post Tenure Process Review provides a review process of Tenured Faculty by selected committee members every 5 years, to validate their work in Research, Teaching, Mentoring, and Publications etc., and to validate that the Faculty being evaluated achieves the level of expected performance that this University requires, as well as the State of Tennessee.

The vote above is to be filed in by the Committee Chairperson, after collection from the Committee members via a Committee meeting. It is then sent to the Department Head of this Faculty member, the Dean of the college, and the Provost of The University of Tennessee for their recommendations. Ultimately it is the Committee Chairperson

Other Text Information: TBD by Provost Office Above Text is placeholder for required text to be provided by Provost Office.
